All volunteers must adhere to the following:

- ? Represent the Islands Folk Festival to the public in a positive light and do not do anything that would intentionally embarrass the festival
- ? While on duty, do not use or consume any alcohol or illegal substances. Abuse of this will result in the immediate dismissal of the volunteer from the festival
- ? Treat other volunteers, performers, staff and the public with respect and courtesy. If problems arise, resolution should be deferred to the Crew Coordinator or Volunteer Coordinator.
- ? Make every effort to fulfill the responsibilities of crew membership. Failure to contribute the minimum time requirements or to fulfill shift commitments without a satisfactory reason may result in dismissal from the festival.
- ? No volunteer shall use for his/her own advantage any property or money belonging to the Islands Folk Festival. All volunteers must be honest and trustworthy.
- ? Volunteers in the positions of Crew Coordinator or Assistant Crew Coordinator must set a positive example for other volunteers. They must be prepared to respond to greater expectations, to take on more responsibility and to follow through on commitments. Failure to fulfill commitments will result in their replacement for the next Islands Folk Festival
